Dr. Douglas Reeves to Speak at Griffin RESA / South Metro Summer Leadership Conference

Griffin RESA is pleased to announce that Dr. Douglas Reeves, nationally known educational consultant and founder of The Leadership and Learning Center, will be a keynote speaker at the 2012 Griffin RESA Summer Leadership Conference. Dr. Reeves has agreed to speak at one of the conference's general sessions.

Dr. Reeves is the author of 30 books on leadership and organizational effectiveness including recent featured titles The Daily Disciplines of Leadership: How to Improve Student Achievement, Staff Motivation, and Personal Organization; Assessing Educational Leaders: Evaluating Performance for Improved Individual and Organizational Results; and Standards and Assessment: The Core of Quality Instruction. On two occasions, he has been named to the Harvard University Distinguished Authors Series, and was named the Brock International Laureate for his contributions to education. He also received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Parents Choice Award for his writing for children and parents.

Dr. Reeves is an expert in whole system reform and consults with many systems in the areas of effective instruction and school improvement. Experts have shared that Dr. Reeves takes us further and deeper into the critical territory of whole system reform. He does it with such elegance and relentless insistence that we are drawn—indeed, compelled—to want to take action.”

This session will be an excellent opportunity for system and building level administrators and teacher leaders to hear one of the most well-known and foremost authorities in school improvement of this generation. Registration for the conference is going on now and can be easily done online by visiting the Griffin RESA website at www.griffinresa.net. The deadline for registration is April 23.
