Grammar-To Teach or Not to Teach? That is the Question
For Grades 6-12

Opening the dreaded grammar book to drill and practice taboo, but teachers complain students lack a basic understanding of language standards. Contemporary wisdom is to incorporate grammar into reading and writing lessons. How? Many teachers are not sure how to sneak grammar in without losing momentum. At the end of the school year grammar is often left of in the cold as teachers wrestle with whether or not to teach it and when.

Come explore ways to hitch grammar with reading and writing to create a match made in heaven. See grammar as a super hero that can rescue students when reading and writing threaten to overwhelm.

Instructor will share strategies and resources to implement in the school setting, ensuring a job-embedded professional learning experience that will positively impact teacher practice and student achievement.

Date: November 17, 2015
Time: 8:30am – 3:30pm
Location: Griffin RESA
Cost: $35
Target Audience: General Education Teachers Grades 6-12

Register on-line at www.griffinresa.net
Registration Deadline: November 10, 2015