Solutions for Children with Complex Communication Needs

Participants will gain understanding of the characteristics and supports needed for children with complex communication needs and gain exposure to the device and software features as well as educational supports from Tobii Dynavox.

Participants will be given the opportunity to participate in interactive stations to complete hands-on activities with Tobii Dynavox products to facilitate learning, ask questions in the moment, and apply knowledge in practical ways.

Participants will leave the session with an awareness of AAC options as well as resources and practical tips that can be used immediately following the training!
