

Amplifying Literacy: Turning Small Moves into Big Gains

WHEN

January 27 – March 31, 2026

Four Session Book Study with guided instructor!

Registration Deadline: January 20, 2026

CLASS DESCRIPTION

"I don't have enough time." If this thought runs through your head every day, this book study is for you. Join us for a unique, paced learning experience built around Nancy Motley's high-yield, low-prep framework from Small Moves, Big Gains. We'll show you how to make tiny, strategic shifts to your teaching habits that lead to massive, measurable increases in student talk, thinking, and achievement—all without adding hours to your planning time. We know teacher time is precious. This isn't a one-and-done training; it's a supportive, collaborative coaching cycle designed for maximum habit formation and zero burnout. This book study directly addresses the teacher's need for strategies that are powerful, efficient, and immediately usable. Stop feeling overwhelmed by complex initiatives. Start making Small Moves that deliver Big Gains in your classroom today.
