Leading Literacy Collaborative Conversations (Springing Forward to the Final Push)

Leading Literacy is a heavy lift! Whether you are a district leader, building leader, or grade-level leader, spring has sprung! The game plan has changed and the push for spring is here. Let's explore how "March Madness" can be used to tailor instruction prior to Milestones testing! From creative ways to engage students in targeted small group instruction, grade-level incentives, and initiatives, to fun grade-level challenge days. March Madness doesn't have to bust any brackets!

The instructor will share strategies and resources that support TKES Standards 2,3,7, and 8 with practical takeaways that will positively impact teacher practice and student achievement. This course will assist in becoming familiar with the new roll out of the proposed ELA standards.
