Leading by Example: for Leaders of Students with Disabilities

Would you like to increase your foundational knowledge of Special Education topics that commonly confront leaders? The course will provide critical information for those who act as LEA representatives or have supervisory roles over students with disabilities. Each session will provide an overview of the content and opportunities to interact with other leaders in the field. Each session has a separate registration and space is limited so please register soon. Topics by date include:

- Discipline and Behavior Strategies for Students with Disabilities (9/27/22)
- Special Education Law (10/26/22)
- What Should an Admin Observe During the SpED Walk-through (1/24/23)
- Master Scheduling through a Special Education Lens (3/22/23)

Since this is part of a grant, there is no fee for special education leaders in the Griffin RESA region (Butts, Fayette, Henry, Lamar, Pike, Newton, Griffin-Spalding, and Thomaston-Upson School Systems). Registration is Required.

Dates: September 27, 2022 (Topic: Discipline and Behavior Strategies for Students with Disabilities)
