

Mastering the Art of IEP Writing: Creating Plans That Drive Student Growth

WHEN

February 25, 2026
8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Registration Deadline: February 18, 2026

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Does it really matter what you write in an IEP? A well-crafted IEP drives effective, targeted support tailored to each student's unique needs. This course is designed for teachers building their IEP writing skills and provides a comprehensive review of each section of the document. Participants will learn compliant practices and how to integrate student strengths, specially designed instruction, and SMART goals to create meaningful, student-centered IEPs. By the end, educators will be equipped to write IEPs that not only meet legal standards but also promote student engagement, independence, and growth.
