PROTECTING INSTRUCTIONAL TIME: SMARTER TECH WORKFLOW

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

Are repetitive tasks, digital clutter, and constant communication taking time away from instruction? Learn to work smarter, not harder, by organizing digital workflows, automating routine tasks, and using responsible AI to streamline planning, grading, and communication. This hands-on workshop helps educators save time, stay organized, and increase instructional effectiveness.

Participants will leave with:

- Ready-to-use templates
- Practical AI supports for planning and differentiation
- A personalized workflow plan
