Unmasking the Trauma of Bullying

This course focuses on examining bullying through the lens of trauma. Participants will learn about negative impacts of childhood adversities and trauma on children and youth, how bullying can be a childhood adversity or trauma, the key characteristics of bullying, basic dos and don'ts for preventing and responding to bullying, and how childhood adversities can affect teachers and administrators in their dealings with children and youth in the school. Participants will be better prepared to recognize bullying when it occurs, take action to respond to bullying incidents, and support a healthy school climate for children and staff.

This course is approved for three hours of continuing education for social workers (core), licensed professional counselors and licensed marriage and family therapists (related), DECAL/Bright from the Start, Family Violence Intervention Programs (FVIP), Ga Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST), Babies Can't Wait Project SCEIs in Area I, Children and Families – Birth to 8, and nursing. All attendees completing the training receive CEU certificates of completion.
