Writing Across Content in Grades 6-12

So many times, content area teachers are told that they are reading and writing teachers, too, but what exactly does that mean and how do content area teachers do that without taking the focus off the content area itself? In this course you will not only walk away with a clearer understanding of what reading and writing instruction expectations are in the content areas, but be able to confidently integrate writing, seamlessly. Participants will cover the traditional high-stakes writing (papers, projects, etc.) but a particular focus is on low-stakes writing. Low-stakes writing is the key to making writing a tool that is used to learn the content and marry writing and your content together, daily.

Instructor will share strategies and resources to implement in the classroom, enhancing teacher practices related to TKES Standards 2,3,7, and supporting literacy standards and resulting in increased student success in writing.
